

Donation Acceptance Policy

Tsolum River Restoration Society
February 14, 2014

The Tsolum River Restoration Society (TRRS) appreciates the offer of all donations to the most worthy cause of restoring and maintaining all ecological features of the Tsolum River watershed by acting to preserve the beauty, integrity and stability of the river and its biotic community.

To maintain the TRRS's integrity, liberty of action and reputation; to minimize additional costs, burdens and risk and to avoid possible liability, the TRRS may accept donations from all sources under the following conditions:

- 1. Gifts shall support the society's mission and long term direction.
- 2. The society receives grants, donations and contributions to support research, training, rehabilitation, enhancement, monitoring, protection, education and other activities to protect the watershed and its functions and administers those funds at the society's discretion.
- 3. The society requests that gifts be unrestricted however it will respect a wish for anonymity and also that gifts be used to support particular programs or projects.
- 4. All donations will become the property of the society.
- 5. The society will determine how donations will be publicly acknowledged.
- 6. Receipt of a donation in no way endorses other activities of the donor.